Let Our Team Help Yours

In light of the COVID-19 crisis, Astute is here to help businesses stay ahead through the many stages. Use our technology to help keep employees engaged and to communicate quickly during the times of constant change.

Reliable answers to common questions

Information can be gathered from trusted sources (such as regulatory or governmental sources) in order to answer general questions. Also, personalize the chatbot by adding company specific questions your employees may be looking for.

Health screenings for employees and visitors

Build confidence, reduce risk and ensure you are compliant with established guidelines by screening EVERYONE who enters your place of business.

Proactive, ongoing employee engagement

As crisis situations evolve, answers and policies may shift as well. When this happens, you can push updates to employees. You can also message those who have previously engaged with the solution and send updates relevant to the questions they previously asked.

Available for all on variety of channels

Use the channel that makes the most sense, including web, IVR, social and SMS. This can be implemented for internal facing or public facing or both.
